*"Jennifer's programs are incredible! She made a big impact on the women of Silver Creek. Thank you for sharing your talents and heart with us."
~ Beth Clifford, Silver Creek Community Church*

*"Jennifer, Thank you so much for speaking at our ladies holiday event with over 200 women! Every review I heard was positive and people left more prepared to tackle the holidays in the right frame of mind. Thank you for bringing your encouragement, passion and God given gifts of organization and faith, to us. Your words surely have made a difference in many lives."
~ Amy Garcia, Grace Church of Glendora*

Jennifer is an inspirational speaker, author, wife and mother of three who ventured out on her own giving presentations and educational seminars over the past 14 years. Prior to this, she held management and corporate training positions. With a bachelor's degree in business administration from UC Berkeley, and a master's degree in Organization Development from USF, she has worked with over 100 organizations in the areas of communication, leadership & teamwork prior to speaking for women's events and retreats.

She was the AWANA commander for two of the 5 years she's served in this international program for kids to learn bible verses, play competitive games, and hear the word of God. Jennifer has a passion to help people find their spiritual gifts to fulfill their life plans and purpose.

As a co-author of "Conversations on Faith" and someone with a spiritual gift of faith, Jennifer provides inspiration to audiences and encouragement to put their faith into action.
